RECTOR'S BLOG: WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR? - “Madisonville is our neighborhood. It’s not next to our neighborhood, it’s not down the street from our neighborhood: It is part of Redeemer, and Redeemer is part of Madisonville. What happens in Madisonville is happening to Redeemer. It is our intention that our life, love, mission, and ministry reflect that reality.”

THE SEASON OF MEAC AT REDEEMER

As we continue to fine-tune our Mission ministry at Church of the Redeemer, we have a desire to strengthen our relationships with our neighbors. This desire also asks us to think of our association with Madisonville as work with and alongside Madisonville Education and Assistance Center (MEAC) to offer help and hope to our neighbors in crisis.

To that end, if you are looking to get involved with Mission at Redeemer, we hope you recognize our partnership with MEAC as an opportunity to work with our neighbors to change lives in positive, practical, transformative ways in

MEAC
Madisonville Education & Assistance Center

Welcome to Redeemer! We have a vision of a worshipping community that knows Jesus and grows in love. A community that is united in relationships of holy connection and communion. A community growing with people of every age, race, gender, sexual orientation, socioeconomic situation, and political persuasion. A community inspired by our understanding of why we are Christian, why we are Episcopalian, why Redeemer matters to us. A community sent into the world, rooted and grounded in love, to serve all people with humility, compassion, and faithfulness. Come, join us on the journey.
