Holy Eucharist in the Celtic Tradition

This liturgy is adapted from "A Celtic Liturgy for Every Season" by Elizabeth Grover.

PRELUDE

SLANE

ISLE OF THE BLEST

The people's response is in bold.

OPENING WORDS

The God of love is with us.

The Spirit of love is in us.

Blessed be the one God, whose prophets foretold the coming of the Light,
And blessed be the Son, whose coming we await.

THE LIGHTING OF THE THREE CANDLES

We will light a light in the name of the Maker -

God who spoke in the silence and gave the gift of sound.

We will light a light in the name of Christ -

Jesus, whose human ears heard the sounds of his Father's creation.

We will light a light in the name of the Spirit -

The Holy One who speaks to us with a still, small voice.

OPENING PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray. Almighty and eternal God, to you our hearts are open and our inmost desires known. We cannot hide our most intimate secrets from you. Be present at all times in our thoughts and hearts and purify, so that we may love you with the love of the Spirit and praise your name with humility and joy; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SILENCE

A chime of the singing bowl will signal the beginning and end.

A HYMN OF PRAISE

Let us praise the Holy One in the words of Mary, the mother of Jesus.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,

my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; *

for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.

From this day all generations will call me blessed: *

the Almighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him *

in every generation.

He has shown the strength of his arm, *

he has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, *

and has lifted up the lowly.

He has filled the hungry with good things, *

and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel, *

for he has remembered his promise of mercy,

The promise he made to our fathers, *

to Abraham and his children for ever.

A PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray. Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST LESSON

JEREMIAH 33:14-16

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE RESPONSE

Mercy

by Rudy Francisco

after Nikki Giovanni

She asked me to kill the spider Instead, I get the most peaceful weapons I can find.

I take a cup and a napkin.
I catch the spider, put it outside and allow it to walk away.

If I am ever caught in the wrong place at the wrong time, just being alive
and not bothering anyone,

I hope I am greeted with the same kind of mercy.

GOSPEL SONG

ST. ANNE'S KYRIE

Lord have mer - cy; Lord - have mer - cy.
Christ have mer - cy; Christ have mer - cy.
Lord have mer - cy; Lord have mer - cy.

THE GOSPEL

LUKE 21:25-36

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in a cloud' with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

Then he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

"Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

With prayers for a world waiting in hope, let us turn to the Lord, and we shall be saved.

For the Church, still waiting for unity, still hoping for renewal. May all the faithful be blessed by the sound of the Gospel proclaimed to the ends of the earth.

Come, Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

For all nations, still waiting for peace, still hoping for an end to war, still searching for common ground. May all peoples be blessed by the sound of understanding between clans and tribes, rulers and races.

Come, Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

For those who have lost hope, still waiting for a job, still hoping for a cure, still searching for a place to call home. May those without joy this season be blessed by the sound of God's promise for them fulfilled.

Come, Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

For travelers and visitors, families and friends, still waiting for welcome, still hoping for reconciliation, still searching for a way to mend what has been broken. May everyone we encounter this season be blessed by greetings of peace, compassion, and hospitality.

Come, Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

For the thanksgivings of this life for all things wonderfully created, for your love and goodness. May we share the divine life of Jesus who humbled himself to share our humanity.

Come, Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

For the sick and the dying and those who care for them, still waiting for results, still hoping for a miracle, still searching for courage and comfort, including those we now name, either silently or aloud. May all the sick be blessed by the sound of God's healing word and the strength of our prayers.

Come, Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

For the dead – loved ones whom we miss this season, forgotten ones who died alone, innocent ones caught in the crossfire of violence, including those we now name either silently or aloud. May all who have died be blessed by the sound of God welcoming them home.

Come, Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

You are near to us, Lord, as close to us as the child in the womb of her mother. And yet we wait in expectant hope for your coming. Attune our ears to hear your voice in all those we meet, and open our eyes to see your abiding presence in our world. Hear our prayers and make us turn to you that we may leap for joy at the sound of your saving Word, Jesus, Emmanuel, God with us, for ever and ever. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

As we await the coming of Jesus,
So we often wait for others to forgive us.
Our sin separates us from God and from one another.
Let us forgive our brothers and sisters
And confess our own sin together

God of all people, as we await once again
The birth of your love in our hearts,
We confess that we have lost sight of that love.
In this busy season we turn away from pain and poverty,
We avoid the sick and the lonely,
And we ignore the outcast and the oppressed.
Have mercy on us and give us the strength
To truly welcome Christ into our hearts
And live our lives according to your will.
We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Lord enrich us with grace,

And further us with heavenly blessing.
The Lord defend us in adversity and keep us from all evil.
The Lord receive our prayers
And graciously absolve us from our offenses. In God's name we pray. Amen

SILENCE

A chime of the singing bowl will signal the beginning and end.

SHARING THE PEACE

God makes peace within us.
Let us claim it.
God makes peace between us.
Let us share it.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

OFFERTORY

We encourage you to give your offering electronically today through our CoR App.

(Search Redeemer Cincy in your app store.) Or you may choose to give online via our secure online system located here: <https://redeemercincy.tpsdb.com/Give/offering> There are also two collection spots in the narthex (look for the Give Here signs) where you may deposit your offering safely.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

We offer you praise and hearts lifted high, O God, who is Father of all life and of all sound. Though our days vanish like mist, and the sound of the earth fade away in the distance, still your Spirit is within all life, and every human soul is born in your likeness. And so with the whole created order, with the stars that silently glisten with life's glory, with the wind that howls and the gentle breeze that whispers, with the trumpets of heaven's messengers and the echo of each of the saints, we join in the song of your unending greatness:

Celebrant and People

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might - heaven and earth are full of your glor - ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he, O bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - sa - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed are you, O God, whose wisdom from above has inspired men and women through the ages to fulfill on earth your purposes - to hear the cry of the poor, to act with mercy, and to live together in gentleness and peace. We bless you for the coming of Christ, who in life and in death embodied the law of love. By his rising again, he has saved our souls from despair, and by the gift of the Holy Spirit, he has given us courage and hope to face the forces of evil and death that rage around and within us.

On the night he was betrayed, Jesus, took bread, and having blessed it, he broke the bread, and gave it to his disciples, saying: "Take, eat; this is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took wine, and having given thanks for it, he gave the cup to his disciples, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Remembering his eternal self-giving, we proclaim the mystery of Christ among us. Made one with him and one with each other, we offer these gifts and with them ourselves, a single, holy living sacrifice.

O God, whose generosity is unbounded and who wills that we should lack no good thing, bless this bread and this wine with your Holy Spirit, that in receiving them into ourselves we may be made whole again, strengthened not merely to hear the truth, but to do it, and be blessed in our doing; through Christ, by whom, with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty God, world without end. AMEN

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now say,

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen

SILENCE

A chime of the singing bowl will signal the beginning and end.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Spirit we await is with us in the bread.
The voice of the Holy One speaks to us in the cup.

THE SHARING OF A HOLY MEAL

COMMUNION MUSIC

LAMENT FOR OWEN CHRISTIE

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Let us stand and join in thanking God for this holy meal
O God, we have heard your call to us,
And we have responded by gathering in your name
To await your voice.
Help us to listen to your presence
In silence and in sound - the voices of your people,
The noises of your animals, the music of creation -
That, reconnected with you and one another through this holy meal
We may hear the voice which calls us home to you
Our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. Amen

SILENCE

A chime of the singing bowl will signal the beginning and end.

Lord of all light, as we go forth into the world, we extinguish this light.

But we will carry the light in our hearts and we pray that as we go about our work in the work, we will shine with the love of God. Amen.
